

THIS PHOTO OF THE 15TH COMPANY, Pacific Coast Militia Rangers, taken in 1941. The Company took part in many manouvers on the west coast during the second World War. In this group are many men who still reside in this area and are little changed with the passing of 26 years. Among those shown are D. Paul, Ken Berkey, Harry Woods, Al Bourdages, Ken Williams, Cyril Weismiller, Don Weis-

—miller, Buster Andrews, George Lines (who is now a game warden in the interior), Pat Moore, George Moir, George Stewart, (Dixie Auto Wreckers proprietor , John Stevens, Ernie Mayeya, Jim Cain, Norman Evans and Tom Lowery. Can anyone identify others?
