This advertisement appeared in the Colonist 11 December 1952: Army Hut, 24 x 27 for sale. Excellent condition for a four-room house.

Best Offer.

Army Huts were used in many places – building for the fledgling University of Victoria, an Arena in Port Alberni, a Scout Hall in Saanich and for some, a much-needed house. Others were purchased and taken apart board by board.

The removals from Macaulay were all done by Heaney’s Cartage and Storage. The company Motto was “Big or Teeney, Just Call Heaney.”
