

About Us

Greater Victoria Military Museums and Historic Sites is an informal association created to provide a forum through which to enhance the collaboration, cooperation and coordination among accredited military, and other museums in the Greater Victoria area with military related collections.

When They Are Open & What You Will See

BC Aviation Museum
Open: 10 am - 3 pm
Thu - Mon

Ashton Armoury Museum
Open: 9 am - noon
Tue, Thu & Sat

Fort Rodd Hill
National Historic Site
Open: Daily 10 am - 4 pm

Canadian Scottish Regiment
Regimental Museum
Open: 9 am - 2 pm
Tue Sep - May
10 am - 2 pm
Tue - Fri Jun - Aug

CFB Esquimalt Naval and Military Museum
Open: 10 am - 3:30 pm
Mon - Fri

5th (BC) Field Regiment (RCA)
Museum
Open: 7 pm - 9 pm
Tue

Fort Macaulay
Coastal Defence
Fortifications
Open Daily Dawn to Dusk

Greater Victoria Military Museums and Historic Sites

Sharing our History and Heritage

Who They Are & Where They Are

The British Columbia Aviation Museum is located at 910 Norseman Road, Sidney BC, on the east side of the Victoria International Airport

The LGen E. C. Ashton Armoury Museum is located at 724 Vanalman Ave, Victoria BC

Fort Rodd Hill and Fisgard Lighthouse National Historic Site is located at 603 Fort Rodd Hill Rd, Colwood BC

5th (BC) Field Regiment (RCA) and the Canadian Scottish Regiment (Princess Mary's) Regimental Museum are located in the Bay Street Armoury, 715 Bay St, Victoria BC

The Canadian Forces Base (CFB) Esquimalt Naval and Military Museum is located in CFB Esquimalt (Naden) on Admiral's Road, Victoria BC

Fort Macaulay Coast Defence Fortification is located in Macaulay Point Park, at 304 Clifton Terrace, Victoria BC